Access, Participation, & Supports for Inclusion

Have you wondered what inclusion is all about? Do you have children you don't know how to support in your care? There are many factors that go into making successful inclusive environments. Learn how to adapt and modify your environments and routines to maximize learning for all children. We will share the components and key points that support successful inclusion. We will help you determine next steps to take in your program to assure you are offering high quality inclusive opportunities for all young learners.

Audience: All Providers

Level of Learning: Introductory

Helping Young Children Through Daily Transitions

This training will help child care providers understand the importance of how to facilitate transitions in their daily work with young children. Well-managed transitions can lead to better classroom/home environment and reduce discipline issues since transition time can be a prime time for challenging behavior to occur. Child care providers will identify key transition times and learn practical and easy ways to implement ideas to help children throughout the day.

Audience: All Providers

Level of Learning: Intermediate

Motivated by Movement: Engaging Children and Staff

Engaging in physical activity in the childcare setting is essential for a child's growth and development. Through this presentation, the participant will understand the importance of physical activity, learn innovative strategies for staff and child engagement during indoor and outdoor play and share creative approaches for indoor safety.

Audience: Preschool (Ages 3-5) Providers

Level of Learning: Introductory

Taxes and Recordkeeping for Family Child Care Providers

Does keeping up with current tax laws as it relates to self-employed business practices seem overwhelming? Learn what it means to be self-employed, how to track income and expenses, and what business expenses can be deducted. Gain other useful resources for tax planning.

Audience: Family Child Care Providers (does not apply to Center Providers)

Level of Learning: Intermediate
